

Multinational corporations invited to appear in TAXE special committee meetings

Name	Invited/Representatives	Replies (as of 2 July 2015)
Airbus	Mr Guillaume de la Villeguerin, Vice President, Tax & Customs	Participated - 02.07.2015
BNP Paribas	Mr Christian Comolet-Tirman, Directeur des Affaires fiscales	Participated - 23.06.2015
SSE plc	Mr Martin McEwen, Head of Tax	Participated - 23.06.2015
Total S.A.	Mrs Nathalie Moggetti, Chief tax officer	Participated - 23.06.2015
Amazon.co.uk Ltd	Mr Christopher Corson North, Managing Director	Declined, due to ongoing investigation
Amazon S.a.r.l.	Mr Xavier Garambois, General Director	Declined, due to ongoing investigation
Anheuser-Busch InBev	Mr Stuart MacFarlane, President Europe Zone	Declined, due to ongoing investigation
Barclays Bank Group	Mr Antony Jenkins, Chief Executive	Declined, but remains open to reply to any specific written questions
Coca-Cola Company	Mr James Quincey, President	Declined, but met with co-rapporteurs
Facebook	Mr Marc Zuckerberg, Chief Executive Officer	Declined
Fiat Chrysler Automobiles	Mr Sergio Marchionne, Chief Executive Officer	Declined, due to ongoing investigation
Google	Mr Eric E. Schmidt, Executive Chairman	Declined, but ready to send "position on the tax issues"
HSBC Bank plc	Mr Alan Keir, Chief Executive	Declined, due to ongoing investigation
IKEA	Mr Peter Agnefjäll, Chief Executive Officer	Declined, but offered to invite Members for a discussion and sent Ikea's yearly summary report - 2014
McDonald's Corporation	Mr Douglas Goare, President Europe	Declined, due to coinciding with major company initiative and possible Commission enquiry
Philip Morris	Mr Kristof Doms, Vice President European Affairs	Declined
Walmart	Ms Shelley Broader, President and Chief Executive Officer	Declined
Walt Disney Company	Mr Robert A. Iger, Chief Executive Officer	Declined, but offered to meet with representatives of the committee to hear their views